during the next two weeks by the barn-storming Pirates.

"If we play in Ohio—we play in Marion." insisted Cooper, when the schedule was being arranged. He won is demand and will pitch against Marion on Sunday October 15. The occasion will be Wilbur Cooper day.

"I broke in over in Marion 12 seasons ago and I have some pretty good friends there, explained the twirter.

"One of the stockholders of the club was a newspaper publisher. Incidentally he was a whale of a fan. He saw to it that his sport editor gave me a lot of boosts and possibly he had something to do with the deal that sent me to Columbus.

"I received his paper frequentif when I was in the American association. After I was sold to the Pirates, I got marked copies now and then. Believo me, I know who is responsible.
